

Fish philosophy: To boost morale and improve results

Preeja Sreedhar

Introduction and workshop objectives

- Fish is a philosophy and you can't mandate a philosophy
- Instead you explore it out and decide if it is right for you
- It is an opportunity to explore and test out behaviors that can enhance your ability to lead

Nothing becomes real until it is experienced

The Four Creative Essential Principles

IF YOU
stumble
MAKE IT PART OF THE dance

#1. Choose your attitude

- You are talking to a nagging customer, and you very well know that he does not carry a right tone and language....What kind of ATTITUDE will you reflect.? Pick any situation from your workplace

Reflect

- Each morning write down the attitude with which you want to infect your team. Describe the symptoms you want to see.

3. Make Their Day

Appreciation
Vs.
Reciprocation

Always pay it forward and never forget to pay it back. It's how you got here and it defines where you're going.
